VI. CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST REPRESENTATION

Would/do you agree that the adverse party will be/is represented by a lawyer from the Public Attorney’s Office (although from a different District Office), in your case and any related case?

☐ Yes☐ No

Would/do you agree that the adverse party will be/is represented by a lawyer from the Public Attorney’s Office (same department of the PAO: Special and Appealed Cases Service/Regional Special and Appealed Cases Unit) in the appeal or other mode of review of your case and any related case?

☐ Yes☐ No

PLEASE ANSWER THE NEXT 2 QUESTIONS IF YOU ANSWERED “YES” TO BOTH QUESTIONS ABOVE

If you agree to the conflict-of-interest representation, do you understand that you are waiving your right to file any complaint against your assigned Public Attorney and his/her immediate supervisor, or the opposing Public Attorney and his/her immediate supervisor, on the mere basis and on mere allegations/suspicious of: (1) infidelity, double-dealing, or collusion with the other Public Attorney or opposing client/s; (2) access to details about each other’s case, evidence, and legal strategy; (3) losing your case; (4) handling an unmeritorious case; (4) other similar grounds indicating lack of confidence and trust to the assigned Public Attorney and his/her immediate supervisor?

☐ Yes, without condition or qualification

If you agree to the conflict-of-interest representation, do you still trust that your assigned Public Attorney and his/her immediate supervisor, and agree that the adverse party’s Public Attorney and his/her immediate supervisor, shall handle their respective cases to the best of their ability, with full fidelity to the cause of their respective clients, and shall be influenced by no other than the evidence on record?
